PODCAST PRIMETIME: RESISTANCE

Monday, January 24, 7:00pm

Rebooting our ongoing discussion of the podcast hosted by Saidu Tehan-Thomas, Jr. Resistance is a chronicle of "the front lines of the movement for Black lives told by Black and brown individuals in a generation fighting for change." Read more about the series at www.bit.ly/resistpod, find the first episode on Spotify, and register for the discussion at www.bit.ly/pyplpod. Need help finding the podcast? Contact reference librarian Alex and he'll be happy to assist. Can't attend? We still encourage you to listen and reflect.

THE JOY OF FRENCH CINEMA

Tuesday, January 25, 7:00pm

Each month, a film by one of the giants of cinema will be made available for viewing, then we will gather at the end of the month to discuss it. Though some French may be spoken in the meetings, they are open to people of all skill levels, and we will make sure that everyone can follow the discussion. This month's selection is La regle du jeu (The Rules of the Game), Jean Renoir's 1939 satire masterpiece. Please register here: <https://bit.ly/frnfilm>.

JUSTICE & EQUITY LITERACY BASICS: THE DOMINATOR AND PARTNERSHIP MODELS

Wednesday, January 26, 7:00pm

When considering ways to address justice issues such as race, gender identity, sexual orientation, and more, a hesitation to act may arise from feeling too unprepared on the fundamentals to contribute in meaningful and appropriate ways. In this new ongoing program, we will use expert guidance in an effort to raise our level of understanding so that we can participate with confidence in such important work. This session, we will examine the concepts of the "dominator" and the "partnership" models of social interaction, and how to move from one to the other. You are welcome to attend as many or as few of these events as you wish, but you will gain the most from consistent attendance. To register, please visit <https://bit.ly/pyequity>.

EXPLORING GLOBAL RIGHTS DOCUMENTS: THE MAGNA CARTA

Thursday, January 27, released by 5:30pm

We will reflect on each session's selections by carefully handwriting them for ourselves, learning a little more about their drafting or history, and discussing the ways they have impacted or impeded our collective progress. This month: portions of the Magna Carta. Use your own writing implements and we'll provide the rest. This program is inspired by artist Morgan O'Hara's Handwriting the Constitution project.
